Scopes / Subjects of examination: A test designed to evaluate knowledge, skills and /or abilities in the following areas.

Law enforcement methods and practices

These questions test for knowledge of accepted police methods and practices and/or their application to situations in the police field. The questions are a sampling of the various knowledge that police personnel may be required to possess in the course of their day-to-day work-related activities.

New York State Laws

These questions test for knowledge of the laws in effect on January 1, 2025 that law enforcement personnel may encounter in the course of their day-to-day work-related activities. The questions are a sampling of job-related sections of the Penal Law, Criminal Procedure Law, Vehicle and Traffic Law, Family Court Act and other laws relevant to law enforcement in New York State.

Supervision

These questions test for knowledge of the principles and practices employed in planning, organizing, and controlling the activities of a work unit toward predetermined objectives. The concepts covered, usually in a situational question format, include such topics as assigning and reviewing work; evaluating performance; maintaining work standards; motivating and developing subordinates; implementing procedural change; increasing efficiency; and dealing with problems of absenteeism, morale, and discipline.

Understanding and interpreting written material

These questions test how well you comprehend written material. You will be provided with brief reading selections and will be asked questions about the selections. All the information required to answer the questions will be presented in the selections; you will not be required to have any special knowledge relating to the subject areas of the selections.

Preparing written material in a police setting

These questions test for the ability to prepare the types of reports that police personnel write. Some questions test for the ability to present information clearly and accurately. They consist of restatements of information given in note form. You must choose the best version from each set of four choices. Other questions test for the ability to organize paragraphs. They consist of paragraphs with their sentences out of order. For each of the paragraphs you must choose, from four suggestions, the best order of the sentences.

Test guide: A Guide for the Written Test for Police Supervisors/Investigators is available at the New York State website: <https://www.cs.ny.gov/testing/testguides.cfm>. Candidates not having access to a computer or the internet may request copy of the test guide from the municipal civil service office conducting this examination using the contact information found elsewhere on this announcement.

The New York State Department of Civil Service collects demographic information using a Bio Data Research Questionnaire. The questionnaire collects information, on a voluntary basis, about an exam candidates' gender, ethnicity, race, language, disability status, veteran status, and LGBTQ+ identity. The data collected is used to study the Department of Civil Service examination program. Above is the QR code to scan and help collect demographic information about Essex County exam candidates.

GENERAL INSTRUCTIONS

1. Each candidate must execute an application form and file it with the Essex County Department of Personnel and Civil Service, Essex County Government Center, 7551 Court Street, P.O. Box 217, Elizabethtown, New York, 12932. Applications should be filed as soon as possible after the announcement of the examination. In writing for application form or information, SPECIFY BY EXAMINATION NUMBER AND TITLE the position for which you wish to apply. Before filing your application, BE SURE EVERY QUESTION IS ANSWERED. AN INCOMPLETE APPLICATION MAY BE DISAPPROVED.

2. Accepted candidates will be notified when and where to appear for examination. None will be admitted to the examination without the official admittance letter. If an application is rejected, due notice will be sent. The department does not make formal acknowledgment of the receipt of an application. If you fail to receive an admission letter at least seven days prior to the examination date, you should contact the Essex County Department of Personnel and Civil Service immediately.

3. There may be restrictions on employment for those who are under 18.

4. There are no residence requirements for taking the examination. Appointing authorities may give preference to legal residents of their jurisdiction.

5. Veterans or disabled veterans who are eligible for additional credit must submit an application for veteran's credit with their application for examination or at any time between the dates of their application for examination and the date of the establishment of the resulting eligible list. Applications for veteran's credit are available from this office. Veteran's credits can only be added to a passing score on the examination.

Effective January 1, 1998, the State Constitution was amended to permit a candidate currently in the armed forces to apply for and be conditionally granted veteran's credit in examinations. Any candidate who applies for such credit must provide proof of military status to receive the conditional credit. No credit may be granted after the establishment of the list. It is the responsibility of the candidate to provide appropriate documentary proof indicating that the service was in time of war, as defined in Section 85 of Civil Service Law, and that the candidate received an honorable discharge or was released under honorable conditions in order to be certified at a score including veterans credits.

6. VERIFICATION OF QUALIFICATIONS: Candidates may be investigated or called for an interview to determine whether they are qualified for appointment. In addition to meeting specific requirements, candidates must be of good moral character and habits.

7. When the written examination is being prepared and rated by the New York State Department of Civil Service in Accordance with Section 23-2 of the Civil Service Law, the provision of the New York State Civil Service Rules and Regulations dealing with the rating and review of examinations apply.

8. Eligible Lists will be established in the order of final rating for successful candidates and will be established for a period of one year unless exhausted prior to that date. Lists may be extended by the Personnel Director not to exceed four years.

9. RETIREMENT SYSTEM: It is mandatory that persons appointed to full-time positions in a political subdivision participating in the New York State Employees' Retirement System, join the system on appointment. For other employees, membership is optional.

10. SATURDAY SABBATH OBSERVERS - DISABLED PERSONS: If special arrangements for testing are required, indicate this on your application form.

11. RECEIPT OF APPLICATIONS: If you submit an application to the Department of Personnel and Civil Service other than by personal delivery to this office, this office will not be responsible for the arrival of the application. Therefore, you should contact this office on or before the final date for filing to determine whether or not your application has been received.

12. USE OF CALCULATORS: Unless otherwise notified, candidates are permitted to use quiet, hand-held, solar, or battery powered calculators. Devices with typewriter keyboards, 'Spell Checkers', 'Personal Digital Assistants', 'Address Books', 'Language Translators', 'Dictionaries', or any similar devices are prohibited.

13. FOR NON-CITIZENS: At the time of appointment, you must be a legal alien authorized to accept employment in the United States and you must maintain such status throughout the term of your employment with Essex County.

14. COLLEGE TRANSCRIPT: A copy of your college transcript will be required with the official application when applying for any civil service examinations requiring a degree.

15. DRUG-FREE WORKPLACE POLICY: All persons seeking employment with Essex County shall be required to submit to drug and alcohol screening and testing, as well as a pre-employment physical.

16. In conformance with Section 85-a of the Civil Service Law, children of firefighters and police officers killed in the line of duty shall be entitled to receive an additional ten points in a competitive examination for original appointment in the same municipality in which his or her parent has served. If you are qualified to participate in this examination and are a child of a firefighter or police officer killed in the line of duty in this municipality, please inform this office of this matter when you submit your application for examination. A candidate claiming such credit has a minimum of two months from the application deadline to provide the necessary documentation to verify additional credit eligibility. However, no credit may be added after the eligible list has been established.

APPLICATION FEE: A fee of $15 is required for each separate examination for which you apply. The required fee must accompany your application. Your check or money order must be made payable to Essex County Treasurer and have the examination number(s) and your Social Security Number on it. CASH WILL BE ACCEPTED. You are urged to compare your qualifications carefully with the Minimum Qualifications and residency requirements for each exam and file only for those for which you are clearly qualified. If you do qualify to take the exam, but fail to participate in the exam, the filing fee will NOT be refunded. If you DO NOT qualify to take the exam the filing fee will NOT be refunded. Should you submit a personal check for payment of the application fee, and such check is returned by the bank prior to the date of examination, you will not be admitted to the examination. Should your check fail to clear the bank prior to the examination date and be returned for insufficient funds after you have sat for the examination, the Local Examination Division will be so notified, and a score will not be given to your examination. For any checks returned, you will be charged $15.00 payable to Essex County Treasurer.

APPLICATION FEE WAIVER: A waiver of application fee will be allowed if you are unemployed and primarily responsible for the support of a household. In addition, a waiver of application fee will be allowed if you are determined eligible for Medicaid, or receiving Supplemental Security Income payments, or Public Assistance (Temporary Assistance for Needy Families/Family Assistance or Safety Net Assistance) or are certified Job Training Partnership Act/Workforce Investment Act Eligible through a State or local social service agency. All Claims for application fee waiver are subject to verification. If you can verify eligibility for application fee waiver, complete a "Request for Application Fee Waiver and Certification" form and submit it with your application by the close of business on the Application Deadline as listed on the Examination Announcement. Waiver Request Forms available in the Essex County Dept. of Personnel

ALTERNATE TEST DATE POLICY: Essex County has an Alternate Test Date Policy which allows a candidate to participate in the examination other than the set examination date. The alternate test date must be set during the week following the examination date. At no time can an examination be set later than one week following the examination unless New York State Civil Service approval is given. If you are unable to take the exam on the set exam date, contact this office for information regarding the policy. For emergency situations which may occur on the exam date, you must contact the Essex County Department of Personnel and Civil Service no later than the Monday following the exam by 4 o'clock p.m. Make-up of Civil Service Examinations by Military Personnel - Pursuant to Conditions S.243.b of the Military Law.

CONFLICTING EXAMS: If you have applied for any other Civil Service examination for employment with New York State or any other local government jurisdiction, you must make arrangements to take all the examinations at one test site.

If you have applied for both State and Local government examinations, you must make arrangements to take all your examinations at the State examination center by calling (518) 457-7022 no later than two weeks before the test date. Be sure to notify your local civil service agency that you have made arrangements to take your examination(s) at the State site, so they do not mark you absent for their examination.

If you have applied for other local government examinations, call or write to each Civil Service Agency to make arrangements. You must make your request for these arrangements no later than two weeks before the date of the examinations. You must notify all local government civil service agencies with whom you have filed an application of the test site at which you wish to take your examination(s). For this examination, call (518) 873-3360 or write to Essex County Department of Personnel and Civil Service, Essex County Government Center, 7551 Court Street, P.O. Box 217, Elizabethtown, NY 12932.

Essex County is in compliance with American Disability Act requirements.
